

SCOUTMASTER'S MINUTE • FRIENDSHIP & TEAMWORK

The Friend Who Waited

Any Meeting

New Scout Welcome

New scout, first campout, falling behind on the trail — and another scout, without anyone telling him to, just slowed down and walked with him the rest of the way. Nobody assigned that. Nobody put it on a duty roster. It happened because that's what this troop is supposed to be. Look around your patrol tonight. Is there someone who could use a friend who waits?