

SCOUTMASTER'S MINUTE • SERVICE

The Quiet Volunteer

Any Meeting

Court of Honor

Some of the most important work in this troop gets done by people whose names never get announced — the parent who quietly restocks the first aid kit, the scout who notices the trailer needs sweeping out and just does it without being asked. Service isn't about getting credit. The best version of it happens when nobody's watching and nobody ever finds out it was you. Be that person this week.
