

Outdoor Activities Chair

Plans and coordinates troop campouts and high adventure.

OVERVIEW

The Outdoor Activities Chair owns the troop's camping calendar — finding locations, making reservations, coordinating logistics, and ensuring the right permits and permissions are in place. They work with the Scoutmaster on program integration.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1 Research and reserve campout sites for the program year
- 2 Coordinate transportation, permits, and park reservations
- 3 Manage campout sign-ups and headcount tracking
- 4 Assist with high adventure trip planning and applications
- 5 Ensure Leave No Trace compliance at all events

TIME COMMITMENT

2–4 hours/week during planning periods

IDEAL FOR

An adult who loves the outdoors and doesn't mind logistics

TIPS FROM LEADERS WHO'VE DONE IT

Book popular council sites early — some fill 6+ months out.

Keep a running spreadsheet of sites the troop has loved (and hated).

Confirm headcount with a hard deadline — late additions kill logistics.
